Charter of Common Refugee Strategies

NEWSLETTER

Issue 1, April 2019

“CORES: Charter of Common Refugee Strategies” is a European cooperation project aims to help newly arrived refugees and the professionals working with them.

CORES addresses refugees’ issues by working with adult education providers in different program countries to ease the burden of refugees’ crises left on governments in EU; to contribute the newly arrived and host society mutual acceptance.

CORES, firstly, will examine social harmony within the Programme countries, and develop a Charter of Common Refugee Strategies at the European Union level, which takes into account local dynamics and values for each partner country.
